

OPPORTUNITIES TO ENGAGE BEYOND CONFERENCES & DRIVE-INS

Common Reads & Facilitated Online Discussions

SCCPA was established in 1970 to provide professional development, networking opportunities, leadership experience, and information on trends and issues. Don't miss out on FREE professional development opportunities occurring in 2017-2018. If you are not a member of SCCPA, you can pay $10 per book to participate.

Dr. Tony W. Cawthon and Dr. Kristin Walker will facilitate two discussions per book. Below is information on the books, discussion dates/times, targeted audiences, and sign-up information.

	Targeted Audience: Undergraduate students, graduate students, & New Professionals Holzweiss, P. C., & Parrott, K. P. (Eds.) (2017). Careers in student affairs: A holistic guide to professional development in higher education. Washington, DC: NASPA. This book is a comprehensive explanation of what it looks like to serve as a higher education professional. As easy to read book, this text addresses issues typically not covered in graduate school, but likely to be experienced in the workplace. <table border="0"> <tr> <td>Tuesday November 7th 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 1</td> <td>Tuesday January 23rd 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 2</td> </tr> </table> Member Registration (Free) & Non-Member Registration (Payment of $10*) https://s1.goeshow.com/acpa_sc/CSAWebinar2017/ereg204854.cfm?pg=register Deadline to Register – Tuesday October 10th * Registration fee is non-refundable	Tuesday November 7 th 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 1	Tuesday January 23 rd 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 2
Tuesday November 7 th 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 1	Tuesday January 23 rd 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 2
	Targeted Audience: Mid-Level Managers, Senior Student Affairs Officers, & Faculty Peck, A. (Ed.) (2017). Engagement and employability: Integrating career learning through cocurricular experiences in post-secondary education. Washington, DC: NASPA. This book explores how student affairs can assist students in exploring career skills through cocurricular experiences. It provides an overview of skills employers expects and provides examples in multiple functional areas of how we can identify employability skills as a result of cocurricular experiences. <table border="0"> <tr> <td>Tuesday February 27th 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 1</td> <td>Spring Drive-In Conference To Be Determined Discussion on Part 2</td> </tr> </table> Registration Information – Will be available later in the fall semester	Tuesday February 27 th 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 1	Spring Drive-In Conference To Be Determined Discussion on Part 2
Tuesday February 27 th 1:30 – 2:30pm Discussion on Part 1	Spring Drive-In Conference To Be Determined Discussion on Part 2

Questions You Might Have:

Is SCCPA providing copies of the book? Members and non-members will be responsible for purchasing or accessing the book(s).

Can I participate if I'm not part of the targeted audience? Absolutely! While facilitators have identified a targeted audience for each book and will tailor discussion questions to these groups, members can sign-up for either or both books.

I have a scheduling conflict, will discussions will recorded and made available online? Discussions will not be recorded, but if you're interested, connect with a fellow SCCPA member who is able to attend and discuss the book(s) together.

Additional Questions

Contact Dr. Tony W. Cawthon and Dr. Kristin Walker

